New plan unveiled for town Guildhall

Mum and baby set marathon world record

MUM Jess Bruce pushing her baby in a pram proved an unusual sight among the 700-plus runners taking part in the Abingdon Marathon.

But there was a good reason behind the Oxford mother's effort in Sunday's annual event, as she set a new world record for running a marathon with a pram, crossing the line in three hours, 17 minutes and 51 seconds.

The marathon was won by Darryl Hards, of Worthing and District Harriers running club, with a time of two hours, 30 minutes and 46 seconds.

See page 9 for full story.

REVISED plans for the refurbishment of Abingdon's Guildhall have been released.

The move by Abingdon Town Council last week followed its scrapping of an earlier plan for the building of a 100-seat cinema on the side of the Guildhall.

Councillors now hope the scheme for a new café and bar, improvements to the piazza and a pop-up cinema could be completed as soon as Easter 2017.

The designs for the new plans are due to be costed over the next three weeks after they were released to the public last Wednesday.

The council's Guildhall committee chairman Dennis Garrett said: "I'm very enthusiastic and excited about the plans.

"There's a lot of cross-party support for the idea and everyone supports the work."

Cllr Garrett added: "What I want is a Guildhall that will be seen as the central meeting place in the town."

The previous £3.5million plan for a cinema at the Guildhall was scrapped in June after the town council met with companies bidding to run the cinema.

It emerged that the company 'most likely' to be chosen also wanted to take over the Guildhall's management as well as operate the cinema.

The council is now hoping to be able to screen films in a pop-up cinema with fold-out seating similar to that in use at The Beacon in Wantage, formerly the Civic Hall.

The revised designs were presented to the council by Lewandowski Architects at the end of last month.

Town mayor Helen Pighills said: "I didn't like the idea of the cinema. It would be really good to have a cinema in Abingdon but the Guildhall isn't the right place for it.

"You need space for two or three screens which there certainly isn't at the Guildhall."

The town council took over responsibility for the Guildhall in 2011 from Vale of White Horse District Council, which also gave the town council £1m for the

Cash-saving ideas sought by council

By Alex Ballinger

OXFORDSHIRE County Council is turning to the public for suggestions on new ways to save up to £50 million as Government reduces funding to local authorities.

Leader of the Conservative-run council Ian Hudspeth has said it could be forced to make cuts from 2016-2020 of up to £50m as the Government reduces spending in attempts to bring down the national deficit.

The £50m figure would be in addition to the £290m the county council is currently trying to cut from its budget by 2018.

Councillor Hudspeth said: "The council will have to make some difficult decisions about local services but in Oxfordshire we have already seen communities willing and able to take over where funding has been reduced.

"Community libraries are being kept through the support of a volunteer army and youth services continued across the county when funding was withdrawn several years ago.

"The saving we have to make from 2016-2020 could be as much as £50m. However, this council regards this figure as a 'worst case scenario'."

Cllr Hudspeth added that there were 90 saving options to consider but that child protection was excluded from those choices.

The council is consulting the public on plans to close Oxfordshire's 44 children's centres to save £8m and has previously consulted on plans to save £350,000 by closing some of Oxfordshire's household waste recycling centres.

Labour county

councillor John Tanner said: "Cllr Hudspeth can't run with the foxes and ride with the hounds. He can't have it both ways.

"We're faced with a county council that can't afford to repair the roads and run children's centres.

"This is destruction of public services in one of the richest counties in the country."

The county council has given three main reasons for the budget cuts. They are the reduction of central Government grants, pressure on services such as social care and children in care and also the council being banned from raising Council Tax since 2012.

A public meeting on the cuts is due to be held at County Hall, in New Road, Oxford, on Tuesday from 7pm.

Meetings will also be held in Banbury Town Hall in Bridge Street and the Regal Centre in St Martin's Street, Wallingford in the coming weeks.

Blaze spotted by alert neighbour

FARINGDON: A neighbour called firefighters after spotting a blaze in a next-door house in Pusey on Tuesday.

Crews from Wantage, Faringdon, Eynsham and Oxford stopped the fire spreading beyond the ground floor of the home in The Row at about 12.50pm.

The firefighters extinguished the flames and used thermal-imaging cameras to check for heat or fire damage to the remainder of the property.

The cause of the blaze is being investigated by fire investigation officers.

Motorcyclist hurt

NETTLEBED: A motorcyclist was airlifted to hospital with serious head and chest injuries after a collision with a car near Nettlebed on Monday.

The man, who is in his 60s, was in a life-threatening condition in the John Radcliffe Hospital, Oxford.

His black Triumph motorcycle travelling from Henley to Nettlebed on the A4130 was involved in a collision with a silver-coloured Ford Mondeo crossing the road from Bix Manor junction and travelling towards Bix village.

The car driver, a woman in her 70s, was uninjured.

Police are appealing for anyone with information about the accident to contact Abingdon-based investigating officer PC Darren Baker on 101.

Baby Red Pandas make a debut

BABY Red Panda twins Ralph and Rufus made a shy debut appearance at Cotswold Wildlife Park on Tuesday after three months in their nest box.

The cubs were born at the park near Burford in July to mum Scarlet and dad Doodoo and emerged to explore their enclosure.

Park curator, Jamie Craig, said: "The new babies are taking their first tentative steps in the trees and if possible, looking even cuter than their parents." The twins are Scarlet and Doodoo's second litter, after Scarlet gave birth to the park's first Red Panda cubs in over 10 years in 2012.

Red Pandas, who are distantly related to the Giant Panda, are named as the 19th most globally threatened species by Edge of Existence conservation project, with an estimation of fewer than 10,000 in the wild. Like the Giant Panda, females are fertile for just one day a year.

Police appeal after theft of silver

BAMPTON: Silver candlesticks, tumblers, a salt cellar and spoons were stolen from a Bampton home on Monday.

Thieves broke in through a back window of the home in Bushey Row between 10pm and 11.30pm, before leaving by a side door.

PC Adam Taylor is appealing for information about a high-performance vehicle heard outside the property. Call him on 101.

Homes bid raises fears

News Bites

PLANS for up to 200 homes in Sutton Courtenay have been submitted to Vale of White Horse District Council.

The outline planning application for about 195 houses on farmland on the south-eastern edge of the village was submitted by Bidwells planning consultants on behalf of developers Redrow Homes South Midlands on October 5.

A consultation is running on the plans until November 11 and a target decision date has been set as January 4.

If approved, the houses would be built on 18.12 acres – the size of about seven football pitches – on a field on the north side of

By Katriona Ormiston

Hobbyhorse Lane, next to Sutton Courtenay Village Hall.

Vice-chairman of Sutton Courtenay Parish Council, William Hanks, said: "The village at the moment is basically expanding by double with all the plans and it cannot cope with that many houses."

"We have lost our doctor's surgery and we only have two shops now, it's not sustainable."

"It is meant to be a rural area but I'm afraid it is not any more. The whole system is coming to a grinding halt."

He raised traffic, flooding and the sewage system as the main problems in accommodating the extra houses.

A Sutton Courtenay Parish Council analysis, conducted by Cllr Hanks, revealed that between 2013 to 2015 farmland in the parish had dropped from 23.3 per cent to 16 per cent, while housing land had risen from 14.3 per cent to 21 per cent.

On Friday, developers Savills ran a public consultation unveiling plans for another 90 homes in Appleford Road, opposite Amey engineering company.

But the land earmarked for development by Redrow Homes is included in Vale of White Horse District Council's Local Plan as a site for up to 220 homes. The Local Plan is currently being examined by a government planning inspector.

Redrow plans to build 68 homes for social housing and 127 for the open market, as well as 325 parking spaces, an area of open space and three ponds.

A public footpath running through the middle of the site would be integrated in the plans.

The social housing would include eight one-bedroomed maisonettes, 28 two-bedroom houses, 23 three-bedroom and nine four-bedroom homes.

The remainder would be 21 two-bedroom, 73 three-bedroom, 45 four-bedroom, and eight five-bedroom homes.

During a public consultation held on the plans on May 21, about 80 people attended and raised their concerns about traffic and flooding north-east of the site, including on a neighbouring sports ground and football pitches.

A planning statement from Redrow Homes said: "The harm resulting from the proposed development is the loss of a field that adjoins the village."

It added: "The benefits resulting from the development including provision of market and affordable housing scheme are considered to be sufficient to justify the proposals in the planning balance."

No trace found

ABINGDON: A survey of land in Drayton Road where developers are building 158 homes has found no evidence of badgers or bats using the site.

Taylor Wimpey submitted a planning document to Vale of White Horse District Council updating officers on drainage and tree strategies for the development on October 8.

It also stated that during a badger and bat survey carried out on September 28 no evidence of roosting bats or badger activity was found.

The surveys were part of a list of conditions laid down when planning permission was given by the Vale in March 2015.

Some digging work on the site is underway but building work has not yet started.

Number boosted

WANTAGE: A new planning application increasing the number of homes to be built on the site of Wantage Tennis Club from six to eight has been submitted to Vale of White Horse District Council.

Councillors agreed plans to demolish three tennis courts in Foliat Drive for six semi-detached homes in July.

However, the new plan has been filed by Donnington New Homes, with a consultation running until November 2.

The tennis club is looking to move from its current base to Manor Road Recreation Ground, where it wants to build four tennis courts and a pavilion.

Plan needs consent from Vale building's future maintenance.

However the town council's hopes of renovating the building were hit by a setback in April 2014 when its bid to the Heritage Lottery Fund was turned down, cutting the money available from £4.4m to £2.5m.

The town council agreed the revised plan in September, but it will still need to gain planning consent from the Vale.

As part of the new plan, Abbey Hall would be upgraded to improve its lighting and acoustics, making it suitable for the showing of films.

Retractable stairs would also be installed.

The Guildhall was closed in August for 12 to 18 months for preliminary renovation work to be carried out.

Band remains upbeat despite dropping out of TV show

A GIRL band with three Oxfordshire members remains positive despite being knocked out of the X Factor television talent competition on Sunday.

PYT is made up of Amy Nash, 18, of Jericho, Oxford, Renetta Eagle, 20, from Headington, Ebony Cantwell, 17, of Wantage, and London-based Tonia Gigli, 21, and Naomi Mulumbala, 21.

The five-piece made it through to the final ten groups in the competition but were dropped from Cheryl Fernandez-Versini's final six.

The band's manager Jeremy Medcalf said: "X Factor is a platform that the girls are thankful for and they wish the remaining acts the best of luck."

Live performances are also lined up for the girls as they will perform alongside former X Factor contestant Jake Quickenden and S Club 7 in Essex on Halloween.

Mum set to claim record for marathon pram run

A MUM from Oxford took on the Abingdon Marathon with a slight twist on Sunday when she broke the world record for pushing a pram.

Jessica Bruce, 32, from Headington, ran the 26.2-mile course while pushing her seven-month-

By Alex Ballinger

old son Daniel in his pram and managed to complete the course in three hours, 17 minutes and 52 seconds.

Dr Bruce has applied to Guinness for her world record to be recorded after beating the current record by almost 15 minutes. Dr Bruce said: "I was motivated to do something new and exciting. I didn't really know what to expect."

"It was probably the most pleasant marathon I've run."

Dr Bruce, who is the director of a running injury treatment company, started running with Daniel around Blenheim Palace after he was born to keep up the sport and decided to take on the world record attempt when one of the organisers asked if she would be running with Daniel.

She said: "The people around us were amazing. You can get some runs where people are a bit annoyed when you run past them but people were so supportive on the course."

More than 700 runners tested their endurance on the route through Drayton, Milton and Sutton Courtenay.

Dr Bruce's husband David ran alongside and the couple crossed the line in 197th and 198th place respectively.

The current record holder is Allison Tai, from Canada, who set a time of three hours 31 minutes and 45 seconds in British Columbia in 2012. However, Dr Bruce is awaiting a reply from Guinness and will then send them a signature from the event organisers to claim the record.

She added: "I think my next challenge will be without Daniel. I'd like to do a marathon without him. My personal best is two hours, 58 minutes."

The winner, Darryl Hards from Worthing and District Harriers running club, crossed the line in two hours, 30 minutes and 46 seconds.

Idea under fire

SOUTH OXON: The leader of South Oxfordshire District Council has hit out at the idea of building homes on the Green Belt.

John Cotton released a statement last week after a council-commissioned study concluded the Green Belt was protecting the district's towns, villages and rural setting.

Cllr Cotton said: "We have no plans to rip up the Green Belt as some others want us to."

The comments were made amid years of ongoing debate with Oxford City Council, which wants to build part of its housing allocation on SODC Green Belt land south of Grenoble Road.

However Cllr Cotton condemned that idea, saying "that would be the definition of urban sprawl."

Cllr Cotton said SODC would be looking at where to put the remainder of its housing allocation and launching a consultation in the coming months.

Work under way

DIDCOT: A new play area with a zip wire and a roundabout is being installed at Loyd Recreation Park in Didcot.

The £50,000 revamp, funded by a grant from not-for-profit landfill initiative WREN, is expected to take three to four weeks.

Force rated high

OXON: Oxfordshire's police force Thames Valley Police has been graded 'good' in an annual police efficiency report published on Tuesday by Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary (HMIC).

It was among 29 forces classified as 'good', while five were 'outstanding', eight 'require improvement' and one - Humberside - was 'inadequate'.

The report stated mental health nurses joining officers on incidents involving people with mental health concerns had helped cut the number being taken into police custody for their own safety by 30 per cent.

It also grades the force's financial position for the short and long term as outstanding.

Pupils combine

OXON: A cast of 150 people including schoolchildren from Oxford and its twin cities will link up for a Benjamin Britten opera tonight and tomorrow.

The performances of Noye's Fludd, conducted by John Lubbock, will take place at University Church in High Street at 7pm. It is a one-act opera about the story of Noah's ark.

The performance is organised by Oxford International Links.

Tickets cost £10 or £5 for children from Oxford Playhouse.

Concern over move to change police funding

IT is "impossible to say" what impact proposed changes to police funding might have, Thames Valley's chief constable said.

Francis Habgood was reacting to the second stage of a consultation on plans to change the way police forces receive funding from Government.

At present, money is shared out from Government on the basis of each force's relative needs compared to each other.

But the Home Office is looking at changing the way it provides funding, which could see factors such as population size also affect what each force receives.

Under these proposals, Thames Valley Police, which covers Oxfordshire, Buckinghamshire and Berkshire, would get less funding.

Chief Con Habgood said: "The latest funding formula suggests that Thames Valley Police will receive a smaller proportion of the Home Office grant and this is, of course, a concern."

"We recognise that in times of austerity we will have some difficult choices to make about how we allocate our resources according to local priorities."

"We will continue to ensure

By Adam Flinn

that we maximise every opportunity to prevent crime, protect the public and bring offenders to justice. Assessing the impact will only be possible when we know the final funding model and how much is available for allocation to policing as set through the comprehensive spending review."

Thames Valley has a budget of just over £382 million for 2015/16, made up of Government grants and its council tax precept. The force has not yet been told what its budget would be under the new model, but the proposed percentage allocation shows it would be less than now.

Mike Penning, minister for policing, crime, criminal justice and victims, said: "No decisions have been taken on police funding beyond 2015/16. Future funding levels will be subject to the outcome of the spending review which reports on November 25."

"There is no question that the police still have the resources to do their important work - what matters is how officers and staff are deployed, not how many of them there are in total."

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes - not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Victims' relief at 15-year prison term for rapist

A RAPIST facing deportation from Hong Kong was jailed for 15 years in his absence at Oxford Crown Court on Tuesday for abusing two young girls.

Joseph Tsang, 31, of Sandy Lane, Littlemore, is in police custody in Hong Kong following an international manhunt after he left Britain.

After being found guilty of sexual offences against a girl under 16 in Oxfordshire in January, Tsang fled the country on the eve of a second trial for crimes including two rapes in Hampshire.

After Tuesday's sentencing, his Oxfordshire victim said: "This November marks three years since my personal nightmare began. At least this is the start of closure for me that I have waited so long for."

"I would like to thank everyone involved for their unconditional efforts to bring Joseph Tsang to justice and to everyone who has continuously supported me through these difficult years that I've had to face."

"Nothing will ever repair the emotional scars that have been left upon me, however I now hope to put all of this in my past and move forward with my life."

By Katriona Ormiston

In January, Tsang was found guilty of three counts of sexual activity with a child under 16, making indecent images of a child, and two counts of causing or inciting a girl under 16 to engage in sexual offences at Oxford Crown Court. All of the crimes happened in Oxfordshire.

On August 25, he was found guilty after a six-day trial of two counts of rape and two counts of sexual assault by penetration, all in Hampshire. But Tsang had fled the country and did not turn up to the trial.

The victim of the Hampshire offences said: "I cannot understand how a person can do that to another person and feel nothing."

"This has had a huge impact on my life for which I am still receiving counselling and I don't know if I will totally recover."

"I am grateful for all the support my family and friends have given me during this traumatic episode in my life and I am extremely relieved Tsang was found guilty and will not have the chance to do this to anyone else."

Tsang was sentenced to nine years in prison for each count of rape, five years for each count of sexual assault by penetration, six for one count of sexual activity with a child under 16 and four years for the other two counts of the same charge.

He was also sentenced to three years in prison for each count of causing or inciting a girl under 16 years to engage in sexual activity, and six months in jail for making indecent images of children.

Senior investigating officer,

Detective Chief Inspector Katy Barrow-Grint, said: "I am delighted at the sentence imposed upon Tsang, who preyed on vulnerable victims for his own sexual gratification."

"The sentence reflects the serious sexual offences that Tsang committed against vulnerable victims."

She added: "Tsang's crimes have had a huge impact on his victims' lives and I want to praise the victims for having the courage to engage with the police and subsequently give evidence at court during the two respective trials."

Tsang appeared at Eastern Magistrates' Court in Hong Kong on September 26 and was remanded in custody to appear at the same court on November 23 this year.

The deportation process could last between eight weeks and two years.

Slight fall in crimes total

MORE than 120,000 crimes were recorded in the Thames Valley between July 2014 and the end of June this year, latest figures have revealed.

Data published by the Office for National Statistics last Thursday showed that a total of 123,798 crimes took place across Berkshire, Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire.

This was a slight reduction of 0.7 per cent compared to the previous 12 months.

The biggest rise was for sexual offences, which went up 44.8 per cent - higher than the England and Wales average of 40.6 per cent.

Violence has also risen by 17.3 per cent, although this was more than seven per cent lower than the average. However there was a big drop in domestic burglaries, which fell by 20.9 per cent.

Thames Valley's Deputy Chief Constable John Campbell said: "Overall crime across the force area continues to fall and when surveyed we are pleased to see that victim satisfaction remains high."

"This is testament to the officers, staff and volunteers who, with the support of members of the public and partners, worked so hard to achieve this."

He added: "We recognise that there are some significant challenges especially around violence and sexual offences, and our current operational priorities are reflective of this."

Pub assault plea

CARTERTON: A man was hit in the face while on the dancefloor of a Carterton pub on Saturday.

The 20-year-old man suffered swelling and bruising to the right eye during a fight in The Beehive at about 12.30am. The offender was asked to leave the pub.

Police launched an appeal on Tuesday asking anyone with information to call 101.

The offender is described as being about 5ft 8ins, in his 20s, of stocky build, with short light hair, and was wearing a black jacket and light blue jeans.

Slavery move

OXON: Thames Valley police and crime commissioner (PCC) Anthony Stansfeld marked the national Anti-Slavery Day on Sunday by raising awareness for victims of modern slavery.

Government figures estimate there are about 13,000 modern slavery victims across the UK, involving child trafficking, forced labour and sexual exploitation.

The PCC is funding pilot projects in Reading and Oxfordshire to provide support to victims.

Town gears up for literary event fun

WRITERS, poets and actors from the local and national stage will be gracing Wantage with talks, workshops and performances at this weekend's Wantage (not just) Betjeman Literary Festival.

Now in its fifth year, the festival hopes to celebrate the life and work of the late former

By Alex Ballinger

Poet Laureate Sir John Betjeman while also promoting all aspects of literature from Saturday, October 24, to Sunday, November 1.

Amongst this year's events is a performance of the sell-out Edinburgh Fringe Festival show 'Austentatious: An Improvised Jane Austen Novel'.

The festival's programme organiser Dorothy Burrows said: "We're looking forward to it. There's a huge amount of work that goes into an event like this. We're all very busy."

"Austentatious" is very high up on my list. They've got some young actors who are beginning to make a name for themselves."

The play 'Austentatious' takes its style from classic writer Austen but the performance is entirely improvised by the cast from suggestions made by the audience. It will be performed at The Beacon in Portway on Sunday, October 25.

An appreciation of poet Sir John, who lived in Wantage for 20 years from 1951, will be given by Father John Salter at Wantage Parish Church with readings of his work set to music.

The performance will take place on Monday, October 26, at 7.30pm.

Fr John said: "It should be fun. I think the programme is quite brilliant."

"Betjeman is part of our heritage. He was always very honest. He was always able to describe complicated emotions in a simple way."

Also returning for this year's festival is 'Local Voices' which will showcase local writers in five-minute slots at The King Alfred's Head in Market Place on Thursday, October 29.

Controversial anti-begging measures are backed by city councillors

OXFORD City Council passed controversial new measures in an attempt to combat 'nuisance behaviours' such as aggressive begging and urinating in public at a meeting on Thursday.

The introduction of Public Spaces Protection Order (PSPO) to give the council the power to issue warnings and £100 penalties was approved by the city executive board.

Council board member for crime, community safety and licensing Dee Sinclair said: "Residents have told me that they feel intimidated and even scared by some of the behaviours that are currently happening in the city centre."

"We take these reports very seriously but until now we have had few powers to take action."

However, the move met with opposition from Green Party.

Speaking at the meeting Cllr David Thomas said: "Fining beggars makes no sense at all and will just lead to more misery and poverty."

The council says it is not their intention to fine individuals as a first resort.

Neglect contributed to teenager's death

THE family of 18-year-old Connor Sparrowhawk has spoken out after a jury inquest ruled neglect contributed to his death.

Connor drowned in a bathtub after an epileptic seizure at an NHS centre called Slade House in Headington in 2013.

As a two-week inquest at County Hall in New Road concluded on Friday, the jury also ruled there were 'serious failings' by Southern Health NHS Foundation Trust which ran the now-closed unit.

A statement released by Connor's family said: "Connor's death was fully preventable. Over the past two weeks we have heard some harrowing accounts of the care provided to Connor.

"We have also heard some heartfelt apologies and some staff taking responsibility for their actions, for which we are grateful."

About 40 family, friends and healthcare professionals packed into the courtroom to hear the verdict, including Connor's mum Sara Ryan.

Connor suffered from learning difficulties, and the John Watson School, Wheatley, pupil was diagnosed with epilepsy at the age of 16.

By Alex Ballinger

He entered the unit in March 2013 and drowned while unsupervised in the bath as the result of a seizure on July 4 that year.

The chief executive of the trust, Katrina Percy, said: "I am deeply sorry that Connor died while in our care.

"Connor needed our support. We did not keep him safe and his death was preventable.

"In the two years since he died, we have made many changes to the way we provide services for people with learning difficulties. We have also implemented mandatory comprehensive epilepsy training for all our staff caring for people with learning difficulties.

"I again apologise unreservedly to Connor's family for his preventable death."

The unit where Connor died was closed by the trust at the end of 2013 as a result of a Care Quality Commission inspection.

Coroner Darren Salter is due to publish a 'Preventing Future Deaths' report to highlight where action can be taken to prevent similar deaths.

Solicitor for Connor's family, Charlotte Haworth Hirt, said: "This outcome properly reflects how badly Connor was failed and the wholly inadequate care that he received.

"The jury's damning conclusion is testament to the commitment of his family, friends and the JusticeforLB campaign to obtaining the truth."

The JusticeforLB campaign was launched after Connor's death, calling for the trust and staff to be held accountable.

LB is a referencing to Laughing Boy, a nickname used for Connor.

Among the failings noted by the jury were the lack of clinical leadership at the unit, failure in relation to training and guidance and also a lack of communication with Connor's family.

Landlord locks tenant out his own home

A LANDLORD who changed the locks of his Oxford property leaving his tenant homeless has been convicted of illegally evicting him at Oxford Magistrates' Court.

Riasat Ali, of Howard Street off Cowley Road, appeared at court last Monday, October 12, where he was also convicted of a campaign of harassment.

Between April and June last year Ali, 66, repeatedly threatened the tenant at his Marston Street home, also off Cowley Road.

And on June 5, 2014, Ali changed the locks on the front door locking his tenant out.

He was ordered to pay £180 for the eviction, £300 for the harassment and £1,000 in costs to Oxford City Council.

Council board member for housing Mike Rowley said: "I would have like to have seen a stiffer penalty as we need to send a clear message to rogue landlords that they cannot just take the law into their own hands."

"Mr Ali now has a criminal conviction on his record and that is right. There is a clear legal process for landlords who want to evict their tenants and the courts have rightly taken enforcement action against those who illegally remove tenants from their homes."

Fight to save children's centres goes on as consultation begins

By Alex Ballinger

CAMPAIGNERS have vowed to continue their fight against the closure of Oxfordshire's children's centre after a public consultation launched on Thursday.

The Oxfordshire County Council (OCC) consultation is underway until January 10 for residents to respond to proposals.

The county's 44 children's centres and seven early intervention hubs could be shut, replaced by eight combined children and family centres focusing on vulnerable people.

Children's centres currently support any children under five and their families, while early intervention hubs give specialist help to vulnerable children, young people and their families.

About 100 parents and supporters launched a Save Oxfordshire's Children's Centres campaign to fight the plans.

Oxford mum-of-one, Jen Lockie, said: "We want to protect all 44 so everyone can access them. We are hearing of parents feeling vulnerable and isolated who wouldn't be part of a demographic that gets help elsewhere."

"Children's centres are wonderful places. I have been using Grandpont Children's Centre since Samuel was born nine months ago because I am a foreigner and haven't got family around in England."

OCC's cabinet voted to go ahead with the consultation at a meeting at County Hall in New Road in September after 14 members of the public spoke in opposition to the closures.

Chairman of the Oxford East Conservative Association, Mark Bhagwandin, said: "[I] am convinced they represent a valuable lifeline not just to children but to vulnerable families in some of Oxford's most deprived areas."

"The closure of children's centres would also represent a false economy because the myriad services they currently provide would have to be picked up by other related services."

The council hopes closing the centres will save £8 million and will form part of its attempts to save £290m by 2018.

The council suggested the new children and family centres would be Banbury, Bicester, Witney, Abingdon and Didcot with three centres in Oxford – Barton or Sandhills, Blackbird Leys and Rose Hill or Littlemore.

Speaking at the cabinet meeting, OCC cabinet member for children, education and families, Melinda Tilley, said: "The number of buildings we use would reduce but we'd still be very much present in all communities, in particular to support the most vulnerable, working with partner organisations."

"Clearly we would rather not be in the position of having to make such significant savings to all of our services, not just children's centres. We simply do not have the money we had in 2010."

The first of three public meetings on the closures is on Wednesday, November 18, at the Kings Centre in Osney Mead in Oxford from 6pm to 7.30pm. The second is on Monday, November 23, at Didcot Civic Centre in Britwell Road in Didcot from 6pm until 7.30pm. And the third is on Monday, November 30, at John Paul II Centre in Webb Court, Bicester, from 6pm until 7.30pm.

Woman sexually assaulted in Didcot alley by man with tattoo under eye

AN e-fit of a tattoo under a man's eye has been released by police after a woman was sexually assaulted in a Didcot alleyway.

The 33-year-old woman was walking along an alleyway from Edinburgh Drive at 11.30pm when a man touched her inappropriately and ran off on Saturday, October 3.

He is described as white, stocky, in his late thirties or early forties, about 5ft 7ins tall, with short shaved hair and a round clean-shaven face.

He had a tattoo under his right eye and was wearing a white or cream short sleeved t-shirt with a small black or navy square motif on the front.

Investigating officer PC Jason Walsh said: "I would like to hear from anyone who was either in the Edinburgh Drive area at the relevant time and saw the offender or who has information about him."

"We have just received the E-fit of the distinctive tattoo which I hope will help the investigation."

Doors open at Oxford's Waitrose supermarket

OXFORD'S Waitrose supermarket has opened its doors in Botley Road.

Eager customers queued from 7.20am outside the new store for the first spoils at 8am last Thursday.

Department manager at the store Craig Barnard said: "The tills have been ringing since we opened."

"They were queuing outside at 7.20 and so far the response has been really positive."

"I'm most pleased that a good proportion of customers are walking."

Susan Taylor stopped into the new store while taking the bus back to Farmoor from Oxford.

The 67-year-old said: "I'm very pleased it's here. The value for money is really good."

"I see this one's got a café too which is nice. I think that's going to be my first stop."

More than 200 jobs have been created at the 24,500 square foot store which also has a 90-seat café.

Five people were brought in for opening day to help customers park their cars.

However, some felt the car parking was not ideal.

Lesley and Eileen Hathaway travelled from Kidlington to visit the store.

Mr Hathaway said: "The car parking spaces aren't the best."

"I don't think they're big enough. And the pedestrian path is also in the wrong place."

It should be up against the building rather than behind the cars."

Mrs Taylor said: "It's a very skinny entrance to the car park. We had to turn left and cross the bus lane but there was a bus that wouldn't let us go."

"But apart from that it seems really nice. It's a lovely building."

Plans for the supermarket were granted by Oxford City Council in May last year.

It sits on land formerly used for Halfords car part dealer and MFI furniture retailer.

Deputy Lord Mayor of Oxford Colin Cook and Ambrose Emmanuelle, a cheery security guard who has manned the Waitrose site for the last six months during construction, both joined branch manager Greg Porter in cutting the ribbon.

Mr Porter said: "Ambrose proved to be a huge hit with passers by as was always happy to help and greet people with a smile. He was the first person to be on the site and has kept everything in order, with his enthusiasm for his job never waning. We were delighted both he and the Deputy Lord Mayor could join us for the opening."

Moped scheme

A NEW £80,000 moped rental scheme for teenagers aged 16 to 19 was launched by Oxfordshire County Council (OCC) on Friday.

The 'Wheels to Work' scheme will give them training, insurance, safety equipment and the moped with the aim of encouraging young people into education, a job, or training where they cannot take public transport to get them there.

It is now open for teenagers in Vale of White Horse and South Oxfordshire district councils and if successful would be rolled out to the rest of the county.

It is being funded by an £80,000 award from the government's local sustainable transport fund.

Council warning

OXFORD: Oxford City Council is warning residents about council tax rebanding companies.

Some residents alerted the council after they were contacted by a company that told them they were paying too much council tax and they can have their property rebranded for a fee.

The council said residents should be extremely cautious when dealing with these companies, which are not linked with Oxford City Council.

WIN Tickets to See An Evening of Burlesque

FOR the first time ever, the biggest burlesque stars from around the world are set to star on the same stage.

An Evening of Burlesque unveils a brand-new, spectacular stage show for 2015, promising that Britain's biggest burlesque production is "going global" for the new year.

It is coming to the New Theatre, Oxford on Friday, October 30. And we have teamed up with the producers of the superb An Evening of Burlesque to give away pairs of tickets to see the show.

Among the array of international talent brought together for An Evening of Burlesque's nationwide tour are the very best burlesque performers drawn from five continents of the world. The themes run thick, fast and from equally far afield.

For its fifth year, An Evening of Burlesque goes international.

Closing date: 25 October

The set list can include strutting Vegas showgirls in all their finery, a tutu too funny take on Russia's Bolshoi Ballet, going nuts on Brazil's Copacabana beach, a Roaring (with laughter) Twenties tribute to America's Great Gatsby and international intrigue thanks to a James Bond finale, featuring a giant martini glass glamorously garnished by a splashing Bond Girl.

Already Britain's biggest burlesque extravaganza – a quarter of a million people have now seen this show – An Evening of Burlesque has spent the past two years touring the rest of the world, revealing the secrets of the art of burlesque to delighted audiences.

From Milan to Zurich, St Petersburg to Minsk, Leipzig to Verona, Dresden to Riga, Padova to Dessau audiences have given the show a standing ovation.

The show combines musical and theatrical parody, cutting-edge variety, magic, comedy and dance with the art of striptease.

Also, there's a prize for the best-dressed member of the audience with theatregoers revelling in the opportunity of dressing up for the occasion.

For over-18s only, An Evening of Burlesque is the slickest, wickedly wittiest, most delightfully choreographed cabaret spectacular of the year.

Dress up and come to the cabaret!

Johnson's cars come to the aid of Oxford cyclists with reflective safety spray

JOHNSONS of Oxford, an authorised Volvo retailer, is holding an event to showcase LifePaint, a unique reflective safety spray created by Volvo which makes cyclists stand out to motorists on the road in the dark. In 2013, there were 743 cyclists killed and an estimated 48,000 injured Nationwide in motor vehicle traffic accidents. Johnsons of Oxford know how important road safety and visibility is, and due to this concern, is holding an event at its Botley Road dealership on 24 and 25th October to showcase the product LifePaint and give you a special fabric application free of charge.

LifePaint is a unique water-based reflective safety spray. Invisible in daylight, it glows brightly in the direct glare of car headlights, making cyclists highly visible to motorists. LifePaint can also be used on other material such as clothes, shoes, helmets, pushchairs, children's backpacks and even dog leads and collars. LifePaint washes off, and will not damage the colour or surface of your chosen material, lasting more than a month of normal usage.

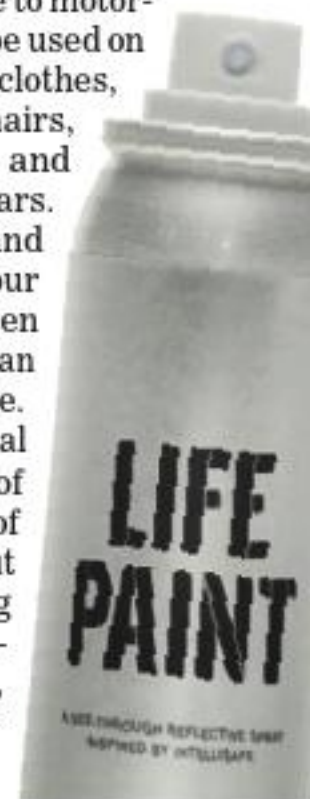

Matthew Lowe, General Manager at Johnsons of Oxford said "On top of raising awareness about the number of cycling related injuries happening on Oxford roads, Johnsons of Oxford realise that being environmentally friendly is more important than ever, with more people taking up cycling every day in order to combat the emissions let off from cars, which is why we're holding the event - to showcase the product and generate awareness around road safety."

Head of Corporate Communications, Events and Sponsorship for Volvo Car UK Limited, Nikki Rooke, said: 'It's about making the invisible, visible. By applying LifePaint, cyclists can make themselves more visible and therefore be better protected in vulnerable situations.'

Johnsons of Oxford is an authorised Volvo retailer and sell only the best quality New and Select Used Volvo vehicles.

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

WHICH? report April 2014. Independent hearing aid providers come out on top

According to a WHICH? report carried out in March and April 2014 Independent hearing aid providers were rated as the most satisfactory compared to Boots, Amplifon, Specsavers and Hidden Hearing.

An independent hearing aid audiologist is able to prescribe hearing aids from all manufacturers and find the exact system to suit your needs and budget. However some of the high street hearing aid retailers are tied to specific manufacturers therefore giving a limited choice.

Buying a hearing aid system is not just about the cost of the aid itself, you are purchasing an on-going package and so other things to consider are:-

1. Who is going to fit my hearing aids, and will I subsequently see the same person?
2. What is the level of ongoing aftercare and support after your hearing aids have been fitted?
3. Is the aftercare and support included in the price of the hearing aid system?
4. What is the length of the manufacturers warranty?
5. Can you trial the hearing system?
6. What are the ongoing costs i.e. batteries and wax guards?

Beware, some companies offer free guides on hearing aids and follow these up with home visits. They are often lead generation companies who operate in a sales based way. They may sell your information on to other large hearing aid providers who will target you with mail and telephone calls to entice you to buy their hearing aid systems. The same can also be said for websites which appear to offer comparatively low priced hearing aids.

If you are thinking of purchasing a hearing system it is important to compare the cost with a like for like hearing aid system and what aftercare is included. If the aftercare is not included in the cost of the system then how much will it typically cost you over the life of your hearing aids.

It can take time to fit and adjust a hearing system correctly so that it is working to maximise your hearing. Without a professional, attentive fitting, and programming by an experienced audiologist and a reliable aftercare service in place it is possible that your hearing aids will end up in a drawer somewhere because they failed to give you the benefits that you expected.

The difference between a good and a bad hearing aid solution is not usually the aid itself, since most aids are made by a handful of manufacturers. It's more to do with the professional fit and service given by the provider. Hearing aids are only as good as the expertise of the dispensing audiologist.

Keith Donaghy is an independent hearing aid audiologist with over 28 years experience of prescribing hearing aid systems in the Oxfordshire area. A consultation with him is FREE and he will happily help and advise you which, if necessary, hearing system will suit your lifestyle and budget the best. All with no obligation, what have you got to lose?

I AM UNIQUE

WIDEX UNIQUE[™]
LIVE LIFE LARGE

NEW HORIZONS IN HEARING

With the WIDEX UNIQUE[™] family, we don't claim to do anything different.

We just do it better.

We can do this because we have refined the entire process of digital sound processing to push the barriers of performance.

The WIDEX UNIQUE[™] hearing aid is loaded with all-new features, including improved A/D converters for incredibly wide input range, a sound classifier for intelligent listening and the Wind Noise Attenuation system that dramatically reduces wind noise, leading to an SNR improvement of 8.4 dB.

But the whole is greater than the sum of its parts, and UNIQUE takes precision and performance to a completely new level in the way it captures, purifies and processes sound.

FROM THE EXTREME TO THE SUBLIME

WIDEX UNIQUE purifies all the sound it captures.

Our powerful SoftLevel Noise Reduction reduces bothersome soft noises to provide users with supreme sound quality in any environment, from the extreme to the sublime.

Wind noise is also reduced significantly with the Wind Noise Attenuation system - the industry's best wind noise reduction - which truly adapts to the conditions.

Whether enjoying the solitude of the great outdoors or focusing intently on tiny details, users of UNIQUE can make the most of the entire soundscape, with pure, clean sound.

COMMUNICATE AS ONE

Like everyone else, hearing aid users are exposed to constantly changing environments.

Responding quickly to these changes is vital. With WIDEX UNIQUE[™] Sound Class Technology we have devised a completely new, precise processing system to give users significantly improved sound in every sound environment.

At the core of this is a new Universal listening program that includes a sophisticated classification system. It divides listening environments into nine distinct sound classes.

By searching for specific characteristics in the incoming sound, it is able to instantly assess the sound environment - providing the optimum sound output to suit each individual's unique sound situation and hearing loss.

UNIQUE controls all this input, ensuring everything works together, communicating as one.

In perfect balance.

Preston and the boys return

THE last time we heard anything new from The Ordinary Boys was way back in 2006 when they released their third album 'How to Get Everything You Ever Wanted in Ten Easy Steps'.

But Preston and the boys are back and they'll be visiting The Bullingdon in Oxford next Thursday, October 29, following the release of their comeback fourth album.

By James Richings

"I am under no illusions that the world is waiting for this record," lead singer Preston told the Guardian.

"However, it's a brilliant album and I know that people who want it will be so happy that it exists. And that's all I can ask for and that's all I want."

"Also, we always try to make every show as much of an energetic burst as we can but that also requires everyone in attendance to do the same. So, assuming that I can expect that from the audience, then the circle will be complete and the show will be great."

In their first stint as a group from 2002 to 2008, the band scored nine tracks in the UK singles chart with their most successful song, 'Boys Will Be Boys', peaking at number three in 2006.

But after the band agreed that they would all like to explore different ventures, the group split in 2008 with Preston focusing on a solo career before concentrating song writing.

The next three years that followed saw the 33-year-old write material for the likes of Cher, Kylie Minogue, Enrique Iglesias, John Newman and Olly Murs, with the latter achieving a UK number one with a song that Preston co-wrote, 'Heart Skips a Beat', reaching top spot in September 2011.

But the buzz of recording new material and touring across the country seemed to get to Preston, who decided to reform the group in 2011.

"I love being a songwriter and I love my job, but I get bored and I deal with artists and musicians who tour a lot so I get jealous," he said.

"It's one of those annoying scratches that once you itch once in your life you can never fully live without it."

He added: "Working with Enrique in Miami was the best for me, but as a band then the best highlights was anything in Japan."

"We had a number one album over there and it was always great to visit".

Doors at the Cowley Road venue open at 7pm and tickets cost £13.20.

Comic hits city

STAND-UP comedian and television presenter Dara O'Brian will be appearing at the New Theatre in Oxford tomorrow evening, Friday, October 23.

The 43-year-old Irishman, best known for presenting TV comedy panel show, 'Mock the Week', visits the George Street venue as part of his 'Crowd Tickler' tour.

Tickets cost £26.90 and the show starts at 8pm.

'Hero' screened

WALT Disney Animation Studio's film, 'Big Hero 6', will be shown at the Banbury Mills Arts Centre on Tuesday, October 27.

The movie focuses on Hiro Hamada, a 14-year old robotics prodigy who becomes friends with a robot called Baymax.

It starts at 12.30pm at the Spiceball Park venue with tickets costing £4 for under-16s and £6 for adults.

Comedy time

COMEDIAN Dan Clark will visit Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot on Friday, October 30, as part of his 'Me, My Selfie and I' tour.

Tickets cost £12.50 and £11 for concessions. The show, suitable for over-16s, starts at 8pm.

Classic reimaged

'SMOOTH seas never made a skilled sailor': And the same goes for actors based on the standout performances in the Improbable theatre company production of William Shakespeare's The Tempest at the Oxford Playhouse in Beaumont Street.

The play – thought by many to be the playwright's last – tells the tale of the former Duke of Milan Prospero, who, along with his daughter, was betrayed by his brother Antonio and left for dead on an (almost) uninhabited island.

This reimaging of Shakespeare's stormy tale of betrayal and redemption features an unusual twist with the set and costumes being made almost entirely from recycled clothes.

At first this unusual rendering does prove slightly distracting as the costumes draw more focus than the actors wearing them.

The floors and caves that make up the play's island setting are constructed from a mishmash of recycled colourful clothes. However, after the shock of the unusual visuals pass, outstanding performances dominate the attention, particularly from Tyrone Huggins as Prospero and Jade Ogugua as Miranda.

Prospero's quickness to anger is perfectly captured by Huggins' roars, as is his flip side of calmness and forgiving in his monologues, while Miranda's naivety and wonder are crystal clear through Ogugua's performance as the young castaway.

Despite a very strange opening which involves a washing machine (the significance of which I still don't know), this imagining of The Tempest is enthralling, emotional and amusing and shows that even after countless re-workings there can still be original Shakespeare productions.

The playwright's humour translates surprisingly well for the modern audience even 400 years after it was first written and the magic and dreamlike feel of the play are served nicely by the live performance from Brendan Murphy – who also composed the music – on water glasses.

The Tempest runs at the Oxford Playhouse until Saturday.

Folk star Bella makes return

ACOUSTIC and folk musician Bella Hardy will return to the county when she performs at the Nettlebed Folk Club near Wallingford, next Monday, October 26.

The 31-year-old visits the High Street venue off the back of her latest album, 'With the Dawn', being released this year, and with Bella making regular appearances in Oxfordshire over the last few years, she hopes the Nettlebed audience will enjoy her new material.

"The inspiration behind the album was that there was a year of my life when I was on the road a lot, I turned 30 and I won the BBC Folk Singer of the Year," Bella told the Guardian.

"There was a lot going on in which I was confused, and I think really exhausted so I write as a way of making sense of the world around me.

"I write poems and notes, but with previous albums I've been quite protective about what I let people see of me within each song.

"That's not the case for 'With The Dawn', it's very much a record of my notes from that one year of my life."

The album is Bella's sixth in eight years, with her previous five albums leading the musician to a number of award nominations and accolades, which includes two BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards – and with the new album now released, she hopes the nominations keep on rolling in.

"I can only afford to be a musician, to create new work and explore music if people come to my gigs and buy my records," she said.

"Award nominations are a really great way to spread the word about my music, and just make more people aware of who I am, so, yes, they help a lot."

The gig starts at 8pm and tickets cost £13.50.

Perfect parties to suit everyone at the Oxford Spires Hotel

JUST half a mile from the centre of Oxford, situated in beautiful parkland, Oxford Spires Hotel is an idyllic setting for memorable Christmas celebrations.

The elegant style of the hotel makes it the perfect venue for a fun-filled Christmas party or festive lunch. We can accommodate large and small groups along with free car parking on site.

Our dinner disco party nights are from £20.00, so that you can celebrate with friends or work colleagues. We will also make sure your party goes with a seasonal swing.

However, if dancing is not your thing then don't worry. We also have festive lunches and dinners, only for those that would prefer a quieter celebration this holiday season.

Tuck into a three-course meal, which includes all the seasonal favorites, then dance the night away to the sounds of our fantastic DJ.

We're perfect for family gatherings, so why not get together prior to the festive break and enjoy a three course Santa's carvery lunch, served on Sundays during December in Deacons restaurant.

This year, why not spoil yourself and enjoy a stress-free lunch on Christmas Day.

Relax with champagne and canapés on arrival, and then sit down to a delicious four course Christmas Lunch with all the trimmings.

Younger guests will be pleased to hear Santa will be paying a visit!

We want you to have a fantastic and relaxing Christmas, and we believe we can do that for you.

Darwin enjoy a fresh evolution

AMERICAN indie group Darwin Deez will be aiming to take Oxford's O2 Academy by storm next Monday, October 26.

The band, consisting of Darwin Merwan Smith, Greg Richardson, Andrew Hoepfner and Tim McCoy, is visiting the Cowley Road venue following the release of their third studio album, 'Double Down', last month.

Strangely, the group has found itself more popular in the UK than in the US - something which has surprised New York-born musician and Darwin Deez lead singer Darwin Merwan Smith.

"I really wasn't expecting our music to become really popular in Great Britain," Darwin told the Guardian.

"I remember I was in a band before Darwin Deez and I was saying 'I really hope we can get some press in the UK as it is the motherland of music press'.

"It seems so strange because the UK was the top of our mountain, and in the other band I was in, we became really popular in Germany, which then helped us to make a name for ourselves over here. So, it's been a crazy journey but we are really enjoying it."

By James Richings

The group was formed in 2009 and soon became a hot topic when its early tracks including 'Constellations', 'Radar Detector' and 'Up In The Clouds' dominated the UK indie singles charts from 2009 to 2010.

This success led the group to release its first studio album in 2010, which peaked at a number three in the UK indie album charts and at number 61 in the UK album charts.

However, after Darwin's next album, 'Songs For Imaginative People', flopped three years later, the band decided it was time to go back to the drawing board for fresh material.

"The inspiration behind the album was to get back on track as the album before was a really experimental record in which I wanted to show off and try new things," Darwin said.

"But this record was really about getting people's attention back and to do the stuff that I know that they will appreciate, which is also a really satisfying thing to do."

He added: "We love touring in the UK because when we walk around back home in New York, loads of people run or yell after you, want a picture etc but here you can actually walk to work without being a problem."

"But it is a Catch 22 situation as I love the fact that I have fans who really appreciate my music, but then again you hear loads of people who have complained about these types of situations."

Doors for the gig open at 7pm and tickets cost £13 plus a £1.06 booking fee on the O2 Academy website.

The gig is suitable for anyone over the age of eight.

LISTINGS

Sun, Oct 25, 2pm

Cornerstone Arts Centre, Didcot DEATH, DUCK AND THE TULIP

Duck, Death and the Tulip is an award-winning performance for small children and their grown-up friends. Using puppets, mime and magic, it tells the story of a heart-warming and whimsical friendship between a playful duck and a character called Death. Together Duck and Death drink tea, go swimming, climb a tree, and keep each other warm. Duck asks lots of questions. Duck learns that Death, as a constant companion, is part of life.

CITRIC ACID

Citric Acid is a pithily absurdist satire of the hipster generation by students Mina Eftehadj-Marquis and Alex Newton. Meet Alice and Ben, two twenty-something university graduates who feel lost in a big wide world. Can setting up a lemonade stand in Choreditch give their lives some purpose? Or will the bizarre clientele who descend looking for overpriced, gluten-free lemonade (from alcoholic businessmen to Karl Marx himself) be more than they bargained for?

PAUL POTTS

Winner of Britain's Got Talent Season One, Paul found global success with his albums, live shows and tours, impressing audiences worldwide with his powerful yet emotive operatic performances. Six years later, and his feet are yet to touch the ground. Paul has already performed more live shows than any other contestant from a talent search programme, whilst in recognition of Paul's meteoric 'rags to riches' rise to fame, his life story has been turned into a film also entitled One Chance and stars award-winning comedian James Corden.

Joining Paul is special guest Catriona Murray, a classical soprano from Nottingham. Discovered earlier this year by Britain's Got Talent winner Jamie Lambert, Catriona has begun work on compiling a solo album and has a string of concerts lined up for the summer season.

Paul Potts is once again set to remind audiences of his inspiring charm and rich, mellifluous classical prowess, complemented by Catriona Murray - a new generation of exceptional talent.

Fri, Oct 30, 5pm

Oxford Playhouse, Oxford GORDON CORERA

Like a cyber-James Bond, the computer was born to spy. The work of Alan Turing led to the birth of electronic espionage. In the following decades, computers transformed intelligence from the spy hunting of the Cold War years to the data-driven pursuit of terrorists and the corporate cyber-espionage of the 21st century. Drawing on unique access to Western intelligence agencies and insights into the most powerful technology companies, BBC Security Correspondent Gordon Corera explores the new space in which the worlds of espionage, diplomacy, international business and technology collide.

DICKENS ABRIDGED

From Adam Long, founding member of The Reduced Shakespeare Company and co-creator of The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (abridged) comes Dickens Abridged - a fast-paced musical comedy. An absurdly talented cast of four brings hundreds of the great author's best-loved characters to life in 70 minutes of madcap Dickensian mayhem.

Sat, Oct 31, 8pm

The Mill Arts Centre, Banbury

SEAN HUGHES: MUMBO JUMBO

Multi award winning comedian Sean Hughes is back with a new show called Mumbo Jumbo. Throughout his life he has been battling to stay on the right side of sanity. This is because in middle age he has realised that the two sides of his brain are in constant conflict. There is common sense against mumbo jumbo and mumbo jumbo seems to have the upper hand. The show consists of stories including being serenaded at the break of dawn by Robert Grinith, trekking mountain gorillas in Rwanda and coming to the conclusion that he will never have a proper conversation with his dear mum.

DART

I'm looking for what is the 'I' of a landscape, what is the changeable part that brings it alive, and it's always water. Adapted for the stage from Alice Oswald's award-winning poem, DART gives voice to the River Dart as it flows across Devon from source to sea. Using words from the people who live and work alongside the river, this piece portrays characters from the mythical and mundane, carrying the audience on a charming journey downstream. This exciting student show blends sound, film and illustration into a performance that will immerse you in the sights and sounds of the Dart.

Tues, Nov 17 - Sat, Nov 21
Oxford Playhouse, Oxford

FREAK

I feel wasted. Not wasted drunk, but wasted unused. Celibate. Wretched. Enter the world of Leah and Georgie: two women discovering the boundaries of their sexuality, saying everything about sex that we all think but never dare to express. Freak is a frank exploration of the intense power and vulnerability of female sexuality. A fresh production of student and prize-winning playwright Anna Jordan's 2014 play that promises to shock and excite. Freak is enticing, daring, and desperately funny.

Fri, Nov 20, 8pm

Cornerstone Arts Centre, Didcot JAMES ACASTER

You'll have seen him on I've Got the Buzzcocks, Mock the Week, 8 Out of 10 Cats and Russell Howard's Good News and heard him on James Acaster's Findings (Radio 4) and The Josh Widdicombe Show (XFM). What's more he's a Fosters Edinburgh Comedy Award Best Show Nominee 2014, 2013 and 2012. Don't miss out on a fantastic evening of laughs.

CALAN

Fiddle, guitar, accordion, bagpipes and step dancing explode into life as Calan perform songs and tunes from their 2015 release Dinac.

Infectious guitar rhythms and high-voltage routines give way to beautiful and haunting songs. Calan bring together the remarkable talents of five young musicians to give a fresh and vibrant sound to traditional Welsh music. With a contemporary and lively approach, they breathe new life into the old traditions through their sparkling melodies, foot tapping tunes and spirited and energetic performances of Welsh step dancing.

Tuesday, November 24 - Saturday, November 28
Oxford Playhouse, Oxford

THE CHALLENGING

One of Jacobean England's most monstrous offspring, The Challenging is a psychological thriller that's second to none. Betrothed to one man but in love with another, Beatrice-Joanna finds a very violent way out of her predicament. But when the servant she bribes to perform the murder asks for her virginity in return the situation quickly escalates into blood and madness.

Ringed with howls, gnashing and hellish torments, this intense production blends original live music, dance and acrobatics into an evening of murderous passion.

Tues, Nov 24 - Sat, Nov 28
Oxford Playhouse, Oxford

PUSSYFOOTING

A young girl squares up to a dragon.

A small boy packs away his skirts. An advert tells us what to be at any cost. Drawing on our culture's wildly varied presentations of women, this is a fearsome journey through society's wild patchwork of performed femininity. Devised by Knotworks, an exciting new student ensemble, this is a politicised, tender and funny look at modern womanhood in all its forms. Be warned: despite the name Pussyfooting does not tread lightly.

Tue, Nov 24, 7.30pm
New Theatre, Oxford

WILL YOUNG

The tour announcement comes as Will's brilliant brand new album 85% Proof goes straight into Number One on the Official UK Album Chart. 85% Proof is the sixth album from the multi-million selling Brit Award winning singer-songwriter and represents his most accomplished work to date.

DISCO PIGS

Born seconds apart, Darren and Sinead, aka Pig and Runt, live in a fantasy world of their own in Cook City. Trash TV, Disco beats and cheap booze have fuelled this obsessive friendship. But as they go for their 17th birthday binge, reality violently collides with their fantasy and their world begins to crumble.

Written by Enda Walsh, award winning writer of The Walworth Farce, The New Electric Ballroom, Penelope and Camera d'Or winning screenplay Hunger; Disco Pigs is a furious, funny and violent dash through a friendship too close to survive.

JANE EYRE

Almost 170 years on, Charlotte Brontë's story of the trailblazing Jane is as inspiring as ever. This bold and dynamic production uncovers one woman's fight for freedom and fulfilment on her own terms.

From her beginnings as a destitute orphan, Jane Eyre's spirited heroine faces life's obstacles head-on, surviving poverty, injustice and the discovery of bitter betrayal before taking the ultimate decision to follow her heart.

This acclaimed re-imagining of Brontë's masterpiece was first staged by Bristol Old Vic last year, when the story was performed over two evenings. Director Sally Cookson now brings her celebrated production to the National, presented as a single, exhilarating performance.

Top footballers past and present contest parking challenge to mark launch of the new Vauxhall Corsa VXR Harry canes Barnes in car race

TO celebrate the release of the new Vauxhall Corsa VXR in the UK, England footballers past and present got behind the wheel of a Lamborghini Aventador and a Corsa VXR to see which could manoeuvre into a parking space in a multi-storey car park the quickest.

With Tottenham Hotspur striker Harry Kane in the driving seat of the 205hp Corsa VXR and former Liverpool forward John Barnes in 700hp Lamborghini Aventador, the #kamarachallenge was commented on by former footballer turned reporter and television presenter Chris Kamara.

In the video, both cars make a great start leaving their bays in the car park, with Corsa edging out just in front of the supercar. But, within a matter of seconds, the Aventador catches up as both take short cuts to arrive ahead of their rival at the single parking spot marked out in the car park.

The two cars jostled for pole position with the supercar easily moving ahead on the straight, but, when the Corsa took on the speed bumps, there was only one winner as Aventador struggled with its low suspension.

By James Richings

In the final last few corners, the Lamborghini struggled with its positioning, allowing the Corsa to nip in at the final moment to take the parking spot, much to the joy of Kane.

On filming the video, Kamara stated: "It could be a scene from any busy shopping centre car park on a Saturday morning near Sainsbury's."

"I've witnessed people who'd sell their own granny for a parking spot."

"The smart money was always on Harry Kane. He's leaner, meaner and probably greener in the new Corsa VXR compared to Barnsey who has quite clearly had his day."

With acceleration of 0-60mph in 6.5 seconds and a top speed of 143mph, the Corsa VXR starts at £18,245 on the road and has twin exhaust pipes, a boot-mounted spoiler and 17- to 18-inch alloy wheel designs.

Former winger Barnes said: "Harry Kane might have been nimble in the new Corsa VXR but on the pitch it would be a different story. I'd be all over him."

Kane, who appeared in the #kamarachallenge as part of a promotion supporting Vauxhall's sponsorship of the Home Nations, said: "The #kamarachallenge was everything you'd expect it to be, as it was fast, furious and fun."

"It was good to see some of the 'England Legends' getting some speed under their belts."

You can watch the #kamarachallenge and see exclusive behind-the-scenes shots by visiting vauxhall.co.uk/kamarachallenge.

Creating Amazing Memories

Foursome Freds fend off local rivals Didcot

WANTAGE Town claimed the local bragging rights after beating rivals Didcot Town 4-1 to progress to the next round of the Red Insure Cup on Tuesday night.

After trailing to a Charlie Noble finish on the stroke of half time, the Alfredians responded in emphatic fashion after the break to fire in four unanswered goals.

Ex-Diddy players Stuart Catell and Ben Whitehead turned the game, before a brace from Karl Roberts sealed the win and set up a clash with Aylesbury United in the next round.

Both sides went into the tie on the back of strangely identical results from Saturday as late goals resulted in 1-1 draws for both teams in the Evo-Stik Southern League Division One South and West.

After being annihilated in the Berks and Bucks County Senior Cup 14-0 by MK Dons seven days earlier, Didcot were prevented from gaining a much needed win as Joe Parker levelled Mark Janes' opener four minutes from time.

Wantage had a much cheerier

By Christian Wilson

finale to their match at Mangotsfield United as Ben Whitehead calmly slotted home a last minute penalty to cancel out Lewis Powell's 58th minute goal to rescue a point.

League leaders North Leigh carried on their superb start to the season with a comprehensive 3-0 home win over Larkhall Athletic to move two points clear at the summit.

Two predatory finishes from Morgan Williams and a third from Elliott Osborne-Ricketts inside the first 30 minutes decided the tie to make it nine wins from 10 for the Millers.

North Leigh hosted Banbury United in the league last night after the Guardian went to press, ahead of a trip to Gloucestershire to play Cinderford Town at the weekend.

Wantage are next in action at home to Larkhall Athletic on Saturday, while Didcot, who rested 11 players for Tuesday's clash, will line up against Brentwood Town in the fourth qualifying round of the FA Cup on the same day at Loop Meadow.

• Didcot Town drew with Cinderford on Saturday (picture by Roger Neal)

Heavy defeats for Henley and Chinnor rugby

HENLEY Hawks' match against National League 1 leaders Hartpury College was one to forget after they were thrashed 46-0 at home on Saturday.

The damage was done in the second half as Hawks were able to hold their own in the opening 40 minutes, with the score just 3-0 at the break.

But the floodgates opened just one minute into the second half, with tries coming thick and fast as College built up their total to dominate the rest of the match.

The result puts Hawks 11th in the league with 16 points, and they will be hoping for a better performance against Richmond on Saturday.

Elsewhere, Chinnor RFC's miserable run continued with a seventh straight loss, this time against Old Albanian.

The National League 2 South strugglers lost 50-14, with the visitors scoring a total of eight tries.

Blewitt and Jack Adams did manage to get converted tries for Chinnor, but it was in vain as they were convincingly beaten.

It keeps Chinnor second bottom with six points - four ahead of basement side Cornish All Blacks - and they travel to Canterbury for their next game on Saturday.

City have to settle for draw

A FAST start wasn't enough for Oxford City to secure the three points at home to Margate, as they had to settle for a draw on Saturday.

Kynan Issac had given City the best possible start as he netted after just five minutes.

Margate attempted to fight back and despite performing the better of the two sides during the first 45 minutes, the hosts went into the break with a 1-0 lead.

But it didn't take the visitors long to equalise, as Jamie Taylor pulled the scores level three minutes into the second half.

City pressed hard to try and re-establish their lead, but were denied thanks to some excellent goalkeeping from Margate's Nikki Bull.

And at the final whistle the scores remained 1-1 to give both sides a share of the spoils.

The result keeps City second in the National League South standings with 26 points, although they are now eight behind current leaders Ebbsfleet United.

Their next match is away to Sutton United in the league on Saturday.

Williams and Lotus seeking Texas points

OXFORDSHIRE'S two Formula One teams – Grove-based Williams Martini Racing and Enstone's Lotus F1 – will be on the lookout for more points at this weekend's United States Grand Prix.

Williams collected 12 points last time out in Russia through Felipe Massa's fourth place, although Valtteri Bottas was on the lookout for more points at this weekend's United States Grand Prix.

The Finn was fighting for a podium with countryman Kimi Raikkonen, when the Ferrari driver made a late lunge on the inside of Bottas and knocked him into the barriers.

But Bottas is ready to put the events of Russia behind him at this Sunday's race taking place in Austin, Texas.

By Adam Flinn

"Austin is the place where I scored my first points so it will always be special to me," said Bottas.

"It's also one of my favourite circuits to drive, with fast sweeping corners, and for me it's one of the best locations on the calendar."

Massa added: "The first corner is special – the elevation change is incredible and the space available means it's a great place to pass and it's hard to defend."

"The fans really enjoy Formula One and the drivers like to go there."

Lotus will also be looking for a strong race, after Pastor Maldonado came through to pick up six points in Russia.

However the race was somewhat of a missed opportunity for Lotus, as Romain Grosjean crashed heavily in the dirty air of Jenson Button's McLaren as he was making his way up the field.

Grosjean said: "It was my biggest impact for quite a while and when I knew I was going to hit the wall I took my hands off the wheel, closed my eyes and braced myself."

Maldonado added: "Austin is a great track, it's a challenging layout which is refreshing to drive and an enjoyable event."

He continued: "It's only the fourth time we will visit Austin, but already it's one event on the calendar that we really look forward to visiting."

Return to action for rugby sides

THE South West 1 East rugby league gets back underway on Saturday, after the teams enjoyed last weekend off.

Witney, Grove and Oxford Harlequins currently sit eighth, ninth and 10th respectively in the standings, with all three having had a mixed season so far.

At the moment it's Witney leading Oxfordshire's charge with 13 points, having picked up impressive wins against Windsor and Reading in mid-September.

Grove are one point back from Witney, also having won two games so far this season including a 35-20 victory against Swindon last time out on October 10.

And Oxford Harlequins are on 11 points, having won against Witney and Salisbury in September but being narrowly beaten by Reading in their last fixture.

All three sides are back in league action on Saturday afternoon, as Witney travel to Maidenhead, Grove visit Trowbridge, while Harlequins are away to Windsor.

Another top-10 finish for Smith

OXFORD MotoGP rider Bradley Smith kept up his impressive record of finishing every race this season with a 10th-place result at Sunday's Australian Grand Prix.

A disappointing qualifying session left Smith 12th on the grid at Phillip Island, where he remained for the opening laps.

He was quickly up to 10th after a thrilling battle with Ducati rider Andrea Dovizioso, and set off in pursuit of Aleix Espargaro.

But the gap proved to be too great to make up, and Smith ended up around a second behind the Suzuki rider.

"To be honest, it was a tough race for me and it's positive to walk away with a top-10 finish," said Smith.

"This weekend we struggled to find the right setting in order to give me the confidence that

• Bradley Smith finished 10th on Sunday (picture courtesy of Tech3)

I needed to be fast around this technical track.

"In the end, we did the best that we could with a solid setup for the race and ultimately I was pleased with the consistency of my lap times."

At the front, Marc Marquez overtook Jorge Lorenzo at the final corner in an exciting finish that saw the top-four covered by just over a second.

The next race is the Malaysian Grand Prix on Sunday, held at Sepang.

No luck for U's with two losses

• Abingdon United's John Dennis holds off a Wootton Bassett defender (picture by Chris Janes)

TWO successive 2-0 defeats on Saturday and Tuesday means that Abingdon United remain towards the bottom of the Hellenic Premier Division table.

Royal Wootton Bassett triumphed against the U's on Saturday, before Abingdon lost by the same scoreline on Tuesday night versus Thame United.

Abingdon have only scored twice in their last six league games, both coming in their 2-0 victory over Wokingham and Emmbrook on October 10.

Elsewhere, Kidlington put five past Oxfordshire rivals Ardley United on Tuesday to stay in contention at the top of the table.

Two goals each from Ryan Brooks and Lewis Coyle and an effort from Eric Odihambo put Kidlington five ahead, with Ardley getting a late consolation goal from Reece Bayliss.

Oxford City Nomads were thrashed 4-0 by Brimscombe and Thrupp, while Milton United followed up a 4-1 win against Longlevens AFC on Saturday with a 2-0 defeat against Highworth Town on Saturday.

Kidlington are third in the table with 30 points, while Nomads are sixth, Milton 14th, Ardley 15th and Abingdon 18th.

All five are back in league action on Saturday as Abingdon host Brackley Town Saints, Nomads travel to Ascot United, Kidlington play Lydney Town at home, Milton host Thatcham Town and Ardley entertain Brimscombe and Thrupp.

Sport Bites

Stars shine

ICE HOCKEY: Oxford City Stars returned to winning ways at the weekend, picking up victories against Bracknell Hornets and Milton Keynes Thunder on Saturday and Sunday respectively.

An Alan Green brace and goals from Michael Whillock, Darren Elliott and Ondrej Pekarik helped the Stars to a 5-2 win over Bracknell.

And 24 hours later Green was on the scoresheet again along with Pekarik, Joe Edwards and Dax Hedges in their 4-2 win over Buckinghamshire side Milton Keynes Thunder.

Stars sit fourth in the National Ice Hockey League South 1 standings with nine points.

Hawks defeated

HOCKEY: It was a disappointing day for Oxford Hawks men's on Saturday, as they were beaten 2-1 by Spencer on Saturday.

But there was better luck for Oxford University Hockey Club men's as they won 3-1 at home to Staines with goals from Joe Foster, Ryan Kavanagh and Andy Oxburgh.

Hawks are fourth in the South Hockey League Premier Division with six points, while the Uni are eighth with four points.

Morris goes super

RUGBY LEAGUE: Former Oxford Rugby League player Sean Morris is set to play in the Super League after signing a one-year deal with Wakefield Trinity Wildcats.

Morris began his career in Oxford before signing with the London Broncos in March this year.

Oxford Rugby League manager Steve Jones said: "To think he came from our trials all the way to Super League is a fantastic journey and advert for Oxford RL."

Final day defeat for Ladies

IT was a frustrating end to the Women's Super League 2 season for Oxford United Ladies on Sunday, as they were beaten 5-3 away to Everton in an exciting match.

United had taken an early lead after a speculative effort from Kat Nutman, but Everton responded and within four minutes were level through a Simone Magill tap in.

It was Everton that went in front just before half-time, as Chantelle Boye Hiorkah knocked in the rebound from Lindsay Johnson's saved header.

Six minutes after the break it was United who this time pulled level, as Kayleigh Hines volleyed home after sneaking in at the back post.

Once again Everton regained the lead as Kelly Jones blasted home from the edge of the area, before the U's restored parity with another Hines effort.

But the hosts were finally able to secure the match as Johnson, playing in her last match before retirement, poked the ball into the net from close range.

And Jess King added Everton's fifth in stoppage time after racing through the defence to beat goalkeeper Hannah Cox.

It means United end the season in sixth place with 24 points, while Reading FC Women were crowned champions on goal difference ahead of Doncaster Rovers Belles.

U's close in on top with Argyle win

OXFORD United put in a storming performance on Tuesday night to beat Plymouth Argyle 1-0 at the Kassam Stadium.

A first half goal from midfielder Liam Sercombe was enough to claim the three points over the Sky Bet League Two leaders and secure United's fifth win in six games.

Victory saw Michael Appleton's side stay at third spot in the league and close the gap on Argyle to just two points.

It followed a disappointing 2-2 draw at Leyton Orient three days earlier, when the U's looked to be cruising in the first half after taking a 2-0 lead into the break through goals from Kemar Roofs and John Lundstram at the Matchroom Stadium.

But a Jay Simpson goal, coupled with Jordan Graham's second yellow card of the game gave the hosts a way back into the tie, before Orient's Scott Kashket then broke Oxford hearts with a 90th minute leveller.

If United were reeling from that result, they didn't show it against Plymouth as they came flying out of the traps early on as they looked to maintain League Two's only unbeaten home record.

Only the frame of the goal denied the rampant U's a deserved lead as first Alex MacDonald and then Ryan Taylor both rattled the post before the half hour mark, with keeper Luke McCormick beaten, while Roope also saw a goal chalked off.

But Oxford didn't have to wait much longer to break the deadlock as two minutes later George Baldock and Danny Hylton combined to cut Argyle's defence apart before laying the ball back to the penalty spot for the onrushing Sercombe to smash the ball home.

And while the league leaders came out strongly after half time, they couldn't force Sam Slocombe into a save of note as Oxford denied Derek Adams' side any time on the ball in a determined attempt to avoid a repeat of the weekend.

In fact the home side came closest to adding to the score line as substitute Patrick Hoban rattled the woodwork for the third time on 87 minutes, with U's boss Appleton labelling his team's performance as one of their best of the season.

Speaking to the club, he said: "I think it's up there, with Plymouth being top of the league and in good form."

"It was important that we took something out of the game, especially after conceding so late at Orient on Saturday."

"When we hit the post twice I just hoped it wasn't going to be one of those nights for us, but we scored a good goal that got us in front."
